

The All-Party Parliamentary Group on Stem Cell Transplantation

Effective, Affordable, Sustainable: A strategy for unrelated donor stem cell transplantation in the UK

Hosted by David Burrowes MP

1 – 3pm, Tuesday 10 March 2015
Committee Room 20, House of Commons

- Welcome – Introduction from the Co-Chairs
- Findings and recommendations of the Stem Cell Strategic Oversight Committee report ‘Effective, Affordable, Sustainable: A strategy for unrelated donor stem cell transplantation in the UK’ – Professor Charles Craddock, Chair of the Committee & Ian Trenholm, Chief Executive, NHS Blood and Transplant.
- Findings and recommendations of the APPG’s new report ‘Umbilical Cord Transplantation: Meeting the Unmet Demand – Progress Report’ – Simon Butler, Policy and Public Affairs Manager, Anthony Nolan.
- Discussion – led by the Co-Chairs

General information

Location: Committee Room 20, House of Commons, Westminster, London SW1A 0AA

Please use the Cromwell Green Entrance to the House of Commons (number 6 on the map).

Please allow 30-45 minutes to get through security.

Once inside Westminster Hall, the Commons staff will be able to direct you to the Committee Room.

If you have any questions or problems finding the venue please contact Rebecca Gladstone on 07825 937920.