

Delivering the UK Stem Cell Strategy: Improving equity of access for Black, Asian and minority ethnic patients

Wednesday 9 March

2.30pm to 3.30pm

Committee Room 9, House of Commons

Hosted by David Burrowes MP and Mark Tami MP

AGENDA

- Welcome- introduction by the Co-Chairs
- Main discussion: Delivering the UK Stem Cell Strategy: Improving equity of access for Black, Asian and minority ethnic patients. Presentations from:
 - Rt Hon Jane Ellison, Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Public Health
 - Ann O’Leary, Head of Register Development, Anthony Nolan
 - Andrew Hadley, General Manager of Specialist Services, NHS Blood and Transplant
 - Myfanwy Morgan, Professor Medical Sociology, King’s College
 - Nilush Aponso, patient speaker
- Group discussion- lead by the Co-Chairs
- APPG Drinks reception- 4pm to 5pm, Dining Room B, House of Commons

GENERAL INFORMATION

Location:

Committee Room 9, House of Commons, Westminster, London SW1A 0AA (nearest tube station Westminster (Jubilee, District and Circle tube lines))

Please use the Cromwell Green Entrance to the House of Commons (number 6 on the map).
Please allow 20 minutes to get through security.

Once inside Westminster Hall, the Commons staff will be able to direct you to the Committee Room.

If you have any questions or problems finding the venue please contact the APPG Secretariat-
Jai Patel 07824 362 041

